'HE GAVE US EYES TO SEE THEM' – THE CHURCH BUILDING

Each month we have been following in the footsteps of George Herbert and making our way through the church building from the entrance door to the altar - pausing at the font, by kneelers, candlesticks, windows, monuments, pulpit, ceiling, bells and choir stalls. They all form part of the church building: a witness to its history and tradition. They speak to us of beauty and craftsmanship, of art and skill, of dedication and faith. We look around. We find our hearts raised to heaven in praise for all we see, and remember Jesus talking about the stones speaking out on that first Palm Sunday.

And when people enter the church building, they become the living stones – filling the air with hymn and psalm, pulling the ropes for the bells to ring out, lighting candles to shine in the dark, kneeling in prayer, and going to the altar to feed on the Bread of life. A church building is an offering, and we, as we worship, make our offering. We set aside time and attention, and bring to God our lives in His service.

All Saints Church in Brockhampton, just south of Hereford, is a wonderful example of the Arts and Crafts movement. Outside and within there is much to admire - including a frontal, hymn book covers and embroidered seat covers that were left on the altar in 1960 by an anonymous donor. They were a thank offering for that church being there and open. It is a reminder of the journey called of us as we become living stones, offering our love and faith and service for the Kingdom.

Churches up and down the land invite us all to enter and make that journey, both physically and in faith. As Herbert's poem 'The Invitation' expresses it:

'Come ye hither all, whose love
Is your dove,
And exalts you to the sky:
Here is love, which having breath
Ev'n in death,
After death can never die.'

VIEW FROM THE VICARAGE

Thank you to those of you who were able to attend my licensing recently, and to all the people who worked so hard to make the service such a meaningful occasion. It's great to be here!

Do you like parties? Christmas is a party.

Specifically, it's a birthday party — for Jesus — and birthdays are meant to be celebrated. It's why we say "Merry Christmas!" What are you going to celebrate this Christmas? That you've made it through another year.... that you will be at home with family.....that you'll be getting an extra bonus.....that you've still got a job and a home..... or maybe you'll find it hard to celebrate because you are just managing to survive. Preparing for Christmas can be a lot of work, especially for parents. With the pressure of buying gifts, sending greeting cards, decorating our homes, putting up lights, cooking, attending parties, and cleaning up afterward, we may have little time to actually enjoy the meaning of Christmas.

The first purpose of Christmas is celebration! We learn this from the angel's opening statement to the shepherds of Bethlehem in the Christmas story. God had wonderful news for us that would cause us all to rejoice, celebrate, and throw a party:

"I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people." The good news of Christmas is worth celebrating for three reasons. It is personal: "I bring YOU." It is positive: "GOOD news of great joy." And it is universal: "for ALL the people." It doesn't matter who you are, what you've done, where you've been, or where you're headed — this news is for you. It's the best news in the world:

God loves you! God is with you!
God is for you!
Christmas is a time to celebrate that God loves you!

The most famous statement in the Bible is Jesus' explanation of why God sent him to earth: "God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life."

The entire reason for Christmas is the love of God. God loves you so much that he came to earth as a human so you could get to know him and learn to trust him and love him back.

Theologians call this the Incarnation. God became one of us, a human being, so we could understand what he is really like. Come and join us at any of the services over the Christmas period, both here and in our sister parish of Ardleigh - there's something for everyone and for all ages.

You are most welcome.

Rev Antony Wilson

PARISH COUNCIL

Christine Frost writes:

The Parish Council held a very well attended 'Business Breakfast' at the Boathouse Restaurant in November and would like to thank the Boathouse for their hospitality and other local businesses that provided refreshments. The speakers were Pam Donnelly from Colchester Borough Council, in her role as Chair of the Safety Partnership, Karen Turnbull, CBC's Economic Growth Development Manager, Inspector Danielle Booth, who is responsible for local community policing and Angie Pearson, Crime Prevention Tactical Advisor. We were also pleased to welcome Rev. Antony Wilson on his first full day in Dedham. Pam spoke about the benefits of partnership working and encouraged local business to form a business association. Karen discussed the changes affecting trade on the high streets of towns and villages. She spoke of possible ways to encourage tourism in Dedham, including the suggestion of creating an annual festival. She also said that CBC are still following a policy which was first implemented around 20 years ago to actively avoid promoting Dedham as a tourist venue because of perceived overcrowding. This met with some surprise in the room and will be discussed in full by DPC at a forthcoming meeting. Danielle Booth talked about the changes in police priorities, explaining she had two Sergeants, 10 Constables, 10 Police Community Support Officers and four special Constables to police her area.

She spoke about the concerns about local repeat crimes, which had affected the Essex Rose Tea rooms.

Angie Pearson talked about Business Watch, also informal networks that could keep businesses in touch with one another and gave advice about business security. She agreed to speak to the Essex Rose representatives at the end of the meeting.

During the question and answer session the following topics were discussed:

- The apparent conflict between the aims of the Dedham Vale Society and the environment lobby to keep the car driving visitors out of the Dedham Vale, which has impacted on Dedham village and the aims of the businesses to provide a service to village residents throughout the year.
- Street lighting, especially in the High Street, Mill Lane and the Drift.
- Car parking – charges and the need to find additional car parking capacity.
- The possible formation of a business association or village partnership.
- The refurbishment of the business notice board in the car park and the value of reissuing the visitor leaflet.
- Mobile phone coverage was highlighted as needing improvement in the village.
- DPC website and the use of social media.

NOTICEBOARD

Stephanie Durrant writes

ARDLEIGH SURGERY

October and November are traditionally very busy months in general practice and this year has been no different. Our flu campaign has been and gone and we will (hopefully!) achieve our target of vaccinating 75% of those who are eligible. This year has seen a rise in the number of patients who don't qualify for an NHS vaccination trying to obtain one at the surgery. Unfortunately we are unable to vaccinate anyone who is outside the NHS flu programme, but many of the local pharmacies and supermarkets offer immunisation at around £5. Those of you who are eligible, please make a note in your 2017 diaries to contact the surgery in September next year to book your flu jab.

Those of you who visited the surgery in late October, you will know that we had a Care Quality Commission (CQC) inspection on 1st November. The visit seemed to go well and the inspectors talked at length to our staff, our patients and the doctors. The report into their visit will be published around Christmas time and copies of it will be available at the practice and on our website. The report will also include our rating. Our Patient Participation Group (PPG) will be having a meeting to discuss the CQC findings and you would be more than welcome to come along, see how the PPG works and discuss the findings with members of the practice. Details of the date and time will be advertised later.

When Dr Owens retired in June, Dr Emily Foster joined us, working three days a week. She has now decided that Ardleigh Surgery is not the practice for her and she is leaving during November. Everyone, I am sure, wishes her well in her new practice. We will be joined during the first week of December by Dr Rebecca Thompson, who comes to us from a practice in Suffolk. Dr Thompson lives locally and will be working three days a week with us, and one day a week at St Helena Hospice in Colchester. We are aware that there has been a shortage of appointments during October and November. This has been partly due to a large demand for appointments, GP sickness and holidays. Rest assured that we are aware of the problems and are planning small changes to the appointment system to ensure a greater availability of appointments.

Over Christmas, the surgery will only be closed at weekends (as normal) and on the bank holidays (26th & 27th December and 2nd January). We will be open as normal on all other days. When we are closed, the 111 service will be available for medical advice. There is no need to order your medication early specifically, unless you would be due to run out, or collect it, when we are closed. All that remains is for me to wish you a merry Christmas and a happy and healthy New Year from everyone at Ardleigh Surgery.

DEDHAM PRIMARY SCHOOL

Laura Valentine writes:

We're all comfortably aboard the Christmas train at Dedham Primary School and it's now full steam ahead until we break up for Christmas. Two nativity plays are currently being rehearsed and songs for the Christmas carol service are also being learned. Each year, the nativity performed by KS1 tells the story of Christmas from a different angle and this year, a school caretaker secretly makes baubles to hang around his school to teach the children the story of Jesus' birth. Excitement is certainly in the air!

A huge amount of sport has been taking place in school over the past couple of months. A dance taster day, gymnastics coaching, tag rugby coaching, a karate taster day by Dedham Karate Club and a dance competition for Class 1 have all proved incredibly motivating for the children. Competitions don't stop at sport however, because children have also been participating in music, cookery and science competitions! Congratulations to the science teams for achieving 3rd place in a local heat and narrowly missing out on progressing to the next stage of the competition. Congratulations also to the KS2 Choir who have made it to the final of the Rotary Club Junior Choir Competition – good luck for the final! Thank you to everyone who supported our Farmers' Market in November and to everyone who voted in the Class 6 'Cake Pop Competition'! On the day, teams of children competed to get the most votes for their cake pops and well done to The Big Cake Tings and Fawkes Fireworks teams who finished joint-first.

Finally, from everyone at Dedham C of E Primary, we wish you all a very happy Christmas and we look forward to sharing more of our news with you in 2017.

I should like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who gave so generously to this year's Poppy collection. A special thanks to those who gave so generously of their time helping with the door to door and in other ways to ensure the success of this important charity. The amount raised so far in the Dedham area was £3,067, an increase of £209 from last year. About £1.86 per poppy! This amount includes the contribution from "Gift Aid" about £66.

I should be grateful for more help next year and if you would like to assist, please telephone me, the number is 321241.

Dedham Players Spring 2017 Production - "God of Carnage"

Another fine production, a clever black comedy to be staged at Dedham on 26th to 29th April 2017.

Adults can often be far more childish than their offspring!

When two very different couples meet for the first time to discuss their respective sons' playground brawl, it should be civilized enough.

Shouldn't it? Don't you believe it. As their manners start to disintegrate with, at one point, a jaw-dropping episode, chaos ensues!

This is another must for your diaries. Look out for our main advert nearer the time (tickets when available from www.dedhamplayers.org or Shakespeare House Gallery, Dedham).

Claire Nicholson, a supremely talented actress, will be directing God of Carnage.

Award winning both as a stage play and a film, God of Carnage will enthrall and captivate you. Book as soon as tickets become available.

DON'T MISS IT!

St Helena Hospice Christmas Tree-Cycle 2017

St Helena Hospice is pleased to be partnering with Colchester Borough Council again this year to offer its Christmas Tree-Cycle for Jan 2017.

On the 7th January 2016, St Helena Hospice will be out with a team of volunteers collecting your real Christmas Trees to be recycled. For those who live in postcode areas CO1 to CO7 and would like to take advantage of this service, you can simply register online in return for a donation to the hospice. The more that you can give, the more you are helping to support patients and their families in your local area when they need it most. Register your interest in this year's collection please visit sthelenahospice.org.uk/treecollect17 or call the fundraising team on ☎931468.

MISSION TEAM

Thank you to all those people who have helped and supported the monthly cake stall in front of the church. This year we have raised a total of £739.73, which will be split evenly between Beacon House and our Missionary family in Africa. We will be in the church selling hot crumble and custard at the Dedham Christmas Market. There will also be hot drinks at the back of the church. There will also be a jewellery stall.

WEA DEDHAM BRANCH

The spring term will commence on Wednesday 11th January 2017 at Munnings Museum at 10 am. There will be a series of nine lectures on "Shakespeare's Women" by Ron Marks. The lectures are an exploration of some of the extraordinary and powerful female characters Shakespeare invented for Boys and men to act: companions lovers, mothers, daughters, viragos at war and victims of jealousy. If you are interested in this course please contact either Colin Biggins ☎322565 or Ruth Higginson ☎322598.
