SONGS OF PRAISE

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord:
unnumbered blessings, give my spirit voice;
tender to me the promise of his word;
in God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

Hymns Old & New No. 467

This hymn, which is a paraphrase of the words of the Magnificat (Mary's Song) from Luke's gospel, is by Timothy Dudley-Smith in 1962. In its early days it was paired to a tune by Michael Baughen (later the Bishop of Chester) and published in an influential book Youth Praise, published by CPAS, 1966. This book was a resource to the growing 'Family Service' movement and to the many Christian youth ventures throughout England and Wales. Later, the words were paired with the existing hymn tune WOODLANDS, which had been composed by the great hymnologist Walter Greatorex in 1916.

Dudley-Smith was born in Manchester and educated at Tonbridge School and Pembroke College, Cambridge. After almost 20 years in the Diocese of Norwich, as Archdeacon of Norwich and then as Bishop of Thetford, he retired in 1991 to Salisbury. In 1997, he was honoured by being named a 'Fellow' in the Hymn Society of the United States and Canada, a rare accomplishment for a British hymnwriter. Dudley-Smith has been writing hymn texts for more than 30 years, and still writes six or so new hymns each year. His collected texts now number over 300, and are published in more than 250 hymnals throughout the English-speaking world.

Asked to write the biography of his friend John Stott, the task required two volumes, for which he was awarded an international prize as Christian biographer of the year. In 2003, his collected works A House of Praise replaced his four earlier collections of his hymns. In the same year he was appointed an honorary vice-president of the Hymn Society of Great Britain and Ireland; and in the New Year Honours was awarded an OBE 'for services to hymnody'. In 2009 he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity (D.D.) from the University of Durham. He maintains a website describing his publications at www.timothydudley-smith.com.

The Rectory
St. James the E<sup>v</sup>en L<sup>ess</sup>

My dear Nephew,

Consider yourself blessed that your churchyard consists of no more than a paved area and that keeping it tidy requires ten minutes of picking up discarded takeaway boxes on a Sunday morning. Our four acres of grass and gravestones absorbs a large portion of the time and energy of many people.

By getting different people to adopt parts of the churchyard, the hope was that an element of competition would be introduced; the Major would never let Captain's section look tidier than his and farmers would want to show amateurs that they knew far more about the land.

Sadly, human nature has got in the way - as it invariably does. Miss S. has declared her section a nature reserve. This now means that her patch is like crossing a wilderness. Two feet high grass and a profusion of dandelions give way to a manicured lawn by another, with any weed daring to pop its head above the parapet being beheaded in seconds. Miss G. wanted to erect a fence round her plot (which is not allowed!), and Sir J. has offered to have it electrified.

Mr N., a retired health and safety officer, is applying to have all the gravestones on his patch levelled, so that no one could be injured by having one fall on them. The fact that this has never happened in 600 years, does not concern him. J's neighbour, Ms. P., has spent time painting her stones with sour milk in order to encourage lichen.

I hesitate to admit it, but the thought of a small area of concrete does at times seem to hold a certain attraction.

Your loving uncle,
E<sup>v</sup>ustace

CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING

Twenty-four people present heard the Vicar welcome Be Burleigh and Antony Watson as newly-elected Deputy Churchwardens, and also Peter Glover, who joins the team of Deanery Synod representatives for Dedham. The contribution of many people, who through their service to the Church serve this community, was gratefully and publicly acknowledged.

CHURCH/YARD WORKDAY

Volunteers came to church before Easter, not for a service but to be of service. They wire-brushed and painted two churchyard gates; scrubbed the stone floor at the west end of church (where coffee stains were spoiling its appearance) and generally tidied the place for the festival. Thank you to all who served their church - and this village - by their gift of time and effort.

BIG IRISH BREAKFAST

On St. Patrick's Day, our Big B. had, not surprisingly, an Irish theme. We enjoyed Irish whiskey in the porridge and black pudding and potato cakes were included to give an authentic Irish feel. We served 175 breakfasts and, with the raffle, raised £1,000. A huge 'thank you' to all the helpers and all the people who come along to make the Big B. such a friendly community event. The next Big B. will be in November.

A couple are faced with a very difficult decision; to improve the life of their child by moving to another country or to stay in Iran and look after a parent who has Alzheimer's disease. Set in Iran, this is a compelling drama about the dissolution of a marriage. Simin wants to leave Iran with her husband Nader and daughter Terme. When Nader hires a young woman to assist with his father in his wife's absence, he hopes that his life will return to normal. However, when he discovers that the new maid has been lying to him, he realizes that there is more on the line than just his marriage.

PARISH COUNCIL

✓ OTE LOCAL ELECTIONS

Roy Laverick writes

Dedham will be going to the Polls on Wednesday 3 May to elect both a new Borough Councillor and a new Parish Council. Borough Councillor Christopher Garnett is retiring after many years of outstanding service to the Dedham and Langham ward, and we wish him well in his retirement. He will certainly be a hard act to follow.

So far as the Parish Council is concerned, it looks as if ten candidates will be fighting for the nine available seats. In an attempt to help residents identify the candidates whom they think are best suited to office, a notice summarising those who are standing has been posted on each Parish notice board, and on the Council website at www.dedhamparishcouncil.org.uk. Please do vote. A strong Parish Council is essential to the well being of the village.

HOUSING NEEDS SURVEY

The report of the Housing Needs Survey, which was based on the recent questionnaire distributed to residents, has now been published. The survey provides useful information to help the long-term planning process and we thank everyone who completed and returned the questionnaire. The full report may be viewed on the Council's website (see above).

COMPUTER & PHONE SCAMS

Most of us are adept at ignoring the plethora of "phishing" emails that we receive, which by various means attempt to fool us into revealing key passwords and bank account details. Recently, however, there has been a spate of computer-based telephone scams. Typically, householders are phoned on an unsolicited basis by someone (usually with a foreign accent) claiming that they represent Microsoft or some other big organisation, and who assert that the user's computer system requires some sort of "urgent attention". The aim is always the same: to obtain money from the user by deception. These calls are always fraudulent and Microsoft, for instance, never phone users in this way. If you are approached like this, residents are advised to end the call immediately.

PAST TIMES

Ten Years Ago May 2002

◆ A CHRISTIAN FAREWELL The Vicar wrote about the Lying in State of Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, which had taken place in March and which he had attended, and reflected on the similar ceremony for her husband, King George VI and its impact on the nation. The day after the Queen Mother's funeral the Vicar had spoken at the memorial service in All Souls' Langham Place, for Mary Whitehouse C.B.E., who had worshipped in Dedham for many years. He wrote 'So it was that I had cause to reflect upon the contribution of two remarkable, long-lived, strong-willed Christian women. Quite different lives and earthly ends, but both of whom had done a great deal to serve the Lord they loved and the times in which they lived.'

Fifty Years Ago May 1962

◆ WOMENS INSTITUTE 'Mrs McDonald of Knight's Manor gave a short talk on antiques. Congratulations to the W.I. for winning the Peter Hall Cup at the Suffolk Drama Festival.'

◆ SUNDAY SCHOOL— THE SUNDAY COACH SERVICE
'Will parents please note that from 10 June there will be a different coach calling for their children. It will take the normal route and times, but it may be a week or two before we get used to the new arrangement.'

A Century Ago May 1912

◆ BUSY VICAR Ascension Day services Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. and after Morning Prayer at 11 a.m. Evening Prayer at 5.30 p.m.; On Whitsunday Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8a.m. and after Morning Service at 11 a.m. There will be a children's service at 3 p.m. and Evening Prayer at 6.30 p.m.

◆ DEDHAM'S GENEROSITY Mr W. W. Hewitt, President of Essex County Hospital, thanked Dedham for its gift to the hospital of 206 pounds of groceries and 75 eggs.
